Specific Information

- Customs declaration form (inward passenger's declaration) for unaccompanied baggage clearly indicating an "unaccompanied shipment", completed upon arrival of the owner of the goods.
 - This form can be obtained by the owner of the goods by exiting through the red channel of the airport baggage declaration area.
 - If there is no declaration form, duty and taxes will be applied to the shipment.
- Household goods and personal effects will not be cleared prior to the owner of the goods' arrival in Taiwan.
- All shipments are subject to inspection, excluding diplomatic shipments with a duty free exemption letter provided by Taiwan government.
 - Shipment arrival must be within 6 months of entry into Taiwan by the owner of the goods.
 - Used household goods and personal effects normally are entitled to be cleared duty / tax free if full documentation is presented to Custom Authorities.
- For air shipments, advise the agent of all related information (AWB number, number of packages, weight, and contact name and number of company).

The average time for clearance after arrival is 2-3 working days.

- Wooden liftvans loaded as a full container load (FCL) in sea shipments must be indicated on the original bill of lading "CY toCFS" to avoid delays in customs inspections.

Otherwise, there will be an additional charge of USD $300 for trailer from CY container terminal yard to CFS terminal warehouse for inspection plus USD $15.00/per CBM for CFS charge and USD 8/CBM for customs terminal fee.

- Containers will not be delivered port-to-door, except for diplomatic shipments.
- - Containers must be unloaded at the Customs bonded warehouse for inspection.
 - After Customs clearance, shipment will be transported to the residence by truck / van.
 - The average time for clearance is 4 - 5 days for sea shipments.
